1. (a) The company has maintained proper records showing full particulars including quantitative details and situation of fixed assets.

(b) All the assets have not been physically verified by the management during the year but there is a regular programmed of verification which, in our opinion, is reasonable having regard to the size of the company and the nature of its assets. No material discrepancies were noticed on such verification.

(c) During the year, the company has not disposed off a major part of the plant and machinery and consequently the going concern has not been affected.
2. (a) since no stock of inventory, hence physically verification of the stock not required.
3. (a) The company had taken secured loan from banking companies and therefore the provisions regarding taking of loan by the company from other companies covered in the register maintained under section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956 is applicable to the company.

(b) In our opinion, the rate of interest and other terms and conditions on which loans have been taken from/granted to companies, firms or other parties listed in the register maintained under section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956 are not, prima facie, prejudicial to the interest of the company.

(c) The company is regular in repaying the principal amounts as stipulated and has been regular in the payment of interest. The parties have repaid the principal amounts as stipulated and have been regular in the payment of interest.

(d) There is no overdue amount of loans taken from or granted to companies, firms or other parties in the register maintained under section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956.
4. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, there are adequate internal control procedures commensurate with the size of the company and the nature of its business with regard to purchases of inventory, fixed assets and with regard to the sale of goods. During the course of our audit, no major weakness has been noticed in internal controls.
5. (a) Based on the Audit procedures applied by us and according to the information and explanations provided by the management, we are of the opinion that the transactions that need to be entered into the register maintained under section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956 have been so entered.
6. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the transactions made in pursuance of contracts or arrangements have been entered in the register maintained under section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956

7. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the company has not accepted any deposit under the provisions of sections 58A and 58AA of the Companies Act, 1956 and the Companies (Acceptance of Deposits) Rules, 1975 with regard to the deposits accepted from the public.
8. In our opinion, the company has an internal audit system commensurate with the size and nature of its business.
9. The provision regarding maintenance of cost records under section 209 (1) (d) of the Companies Act, 1956 does not apply to the company under review.
10. (a) According to the information and explanations given to us and the records of the company examined by us, in our opinion, the company is regular in depositing with appropriate authorities undisputed statutory dues including provident fund, investor education protection fund, income tax, sales tax, wealth tax, custom duty, excise duty, cess and other material statutory dues applicable to it.

(b) According to the information and explanation given to us, and the records of the company examined by us, the particulars of dues of Income Tax, Sales Tax & SEBI as at 31st March 2010 which has not been deposited on account of dispute are mentioned in annexure 'A'.
